She brings a very large cargo, and will be dispatched on Friday morning, at 9 o'clock. Captain Hinckley, formerly of the Everman, is in command.

UNITED STATES COURT .- The District Court was opened at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, his Honor Judge Bryan presiding. IN ADMIRALTY.

The court resumed the consideration of the libels for possession filed by Alberger & Co. et al and G B. Kellum et al, against the bark Kedar, and testimony was heard until 3 o'clock, when the court adjourned until 11 this morning.

THE MENAGERIE SET FREE.—The proprietors of the show, where animets, and paraphernalia had been attached on Tuesday, made their appearance yestering morning before Trial Justice Mackey, and, about paying back the $45 out of which the two country darkies had been swin died, the attachment was desolved. The animals and pictures were duly feturned, and the establishment is, it seems, ready to engage in busi-

A DANGEROUS CHARACTER.-John Scharlong was arrested early ye terday morning f assaulting and stabbing ? coy-Charles Williams -with a knife the day before, in Hogan's stables, Spring atreet. The prisoner was intoxicated at the time, and the stab is so serious that it is uncertain whether the boy will recover. Schariong is, it seems, a dangerous character, as there are To other warrants out against him-one for assault and battery, and the other for assault with intent to kill. Being unable to give the necessary bail, he was committed to jail to await his examination, which comes off to-day.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER.-Lewis Graham, colored, was brought before Commissioner Porteous yesterday morning, and examined on the charge of voting when he had no right to vote at the election last fall. Graham lived in Clarendon, very near the boundary line of Williamsburg County, and had voted late in the day at Graham's Crossroads, in the latter county, about seven miles from his residence. He lived but four miles from the Clarendon poll, and was suspected of having voted there also before going over to Williamsburg County. In default of ball he was committed to jail to await his trial before the United States Court in May next.

TRESPASSING PUNISHED.—Tuesday night a private party was going on in the residence of a quences of his act to confess. lady on East Bay, when Inc. Sweeney and James Flanigan, both a little the worse for liquor, atand entered the house. . They were soon ordered out, but refusing to go, the police were called in. Sweeney then left hurriedly, but Flanigan, as the policeman approached, struck him a blow with his fist which knocked him over. The two were subsequently captured, however, and locked up. After a hearing before the Mayor yesterday morning, Sweeney was discharged and Flanigan sentenced to pay a fine of $15, or go to jail for thirty

BOWEN'S BIGAMY.-There is a good-deal of feeling in the House over Congressman Bowen's persistent bigamy. Wives in three States have claimed him, and thirty more States are yet to be Resolved. That the committee on privileges and elections and on territories be directed to hold a joint session for the purpose of considering and determining how far the privileges of members of determining how far the privileges of members of Congress extend in regard to a purality of wives, and if they shall succeed in establishing any definite rule upon this important question, the committee on territories be directed to inquire into the expediency of reporting an additional section to their bill for the suppression of polygamy in the Territory of Urah, providing either for the removal of the national capital to Sait Lake City, or else for bringing the District of Columbia within the provisions of the aloresaid bill.

CLUBS AND STARS .- Eliza Carson, a white woman, arrested for being drunk and disorderly in Elliott street, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or go to the House of Correction for twenty days.

Benjamin Mills, a colored fightist, was arrested on Tuesday night for making puglistic demonstrations towards a passer by and raising a row generally. At his examination before the Mayor the injured parties falled to appear against him, and Ben was cischarged from custody.

Charles Brown and Andrew Doyle, lodged on the charge of being implicated in the murder of Daniel Driggers, at Adam's Run, were committed to jail for further examination.

Jack Roper, confined for cursing and swaggering about the Military Hall, and refusing to stop nis disorderly conduct when told to do so, was sent to the House of Correction for ten days. Lewis Gress, lodged for disorderly conduct and assaulting Julia Spencer, in King street, was refriged to a trial justice. A quiescent tippler, who mistook the Market for his house, and was lying down comfortably for the night, was assisted to the Stationhouse by a sympathizing policeman, and discharged next morning by the Mayor.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA FRIENDLY SOCIETY .-

At the anniversary meeting of the South Carolina Friendly Society, held on the 22d instant, at Lindstedt's Hall, the following gentlemen were elected officers to serve for the ensuing year: John H. Shirer, president; W. Bredeman, vice-president F. Hisch, treasurer; C. F. Hencken, secretary; di ectors-H. W. Tiencken, H. Kahrs, A. Mowry, H. Funk, R. Hunter THE UNION LIGHT INFANTRY CHARITABLE Association .- The sixty-fourth anniversary of this association was celebrated last evening at Kroeg's Hall. The meeting was not large, but the members closed up and around a large bowl of most felicitously compounded punch, and the merry jest and thrilling recitation from Scotia's favorite bard whiled away the pleasantest of evenings.

HOW COLONEL CASH RECEIVED AN INTRUDER. The Marion Star reports that Colonel E. B. C. Casa was calle to his door one night last week by some unknown parties, and as acon as he appeared on his threshold, the robbers ordered him to give up his money. The colonel, brave to a fault, responded with his repeater and quietly returned to his chamber, without excitement or further inquiry. He was soon after informed that the account of one of the party had been Cashedne was found dead near the colonel's door, HURLEY'S DOINGS IN REAL ESTATE .- The Co-

lumbic Union, of yesterday, says: "The world moves, and so does Mr. Timothy Hurley. Yesterday we visited his four acre lot, known as the Preston lot, near the Charleston depot, where, in process of erection, are thirty-two cottage houses, containing four rooms below and two aboves the foundations, for airtean or the temements in Hurleyville are already laid, and si teen more commenced. Mr. Hurley and General Dennis have purchased the 'Kinsler' lot on Arsenal hill, and propose to erect a like number of tenement houses thereon." A SERIOUS AND ALMOST FATAL ACCIDENT .-On Saturday last, while Mr. John T. Browning was engaged at his steam cotton gins near Summerville, he became entangled in the belting, and was carried feet foremost among the shafting and pulleys, inflicting severe but not fatal injuries. Three of his ribs' were broken, and a severe contusion on left temple deprived him of his senses for two hours. His body and legs are very badly bruised, and he is suffering very much, being unable to move without help. His physician thinks, however, that he is not permanently injured. One more turn of the engine would have crushed him to death. BREACH OF THE PEACE .- Matilda Motte was prrested jesterday and brought before Trial Justice Magreth on the charge of having committed a b eech of the peace against Daphne Davis. The two colored women reside in Wilson street, just opposite each other, and yesterday morning Matilda poked her head out of her window and called Daphne a "goose thief." The latter responded with a stinging rejoinder, which so enraged Matilda that she called out her militiaseveral small boys and girls-and opened a brisk and well-directed fire on Daphne's house with brickbats. Daphne effected her escape through a storm of missiles and made her complaint to the trial justice. After a hearing, both parties were bound over to keep the peace and discharged.

NARROW ESCAPE OF A TRIAL JUSTICE .-About a quarter to four o'clock, yesterday atter noon, as Trial Justice Schreder was sitting in his office at the back of the Courthouse reading a paper, the report of a pistol was heard, and a bullet came through the window-glass, and, passing within a few inches of his head, struck the wall beyond. The report was heard plainly by all in the neighborhood, and the alarm being given, a strict search was instituted by the officers of the detective force, which failed in discovering the origin or cause of the shot. Mr. Schroder was scated near the window, in front of his desk, and was plainly visible to any person at the back of his yard, the direction from which the shot came. The shooting is a perfect mystery, and is supposed to have been accidentally done by some party who is too frightened at the conse-

> TRIAL JUSTICE JOHN C. MINOTT.-The many friends of Mr. John C. Minott, whose appointment as a trial justice by Governor Scott has already been announced, will read with interest the following correspondence, which, in a measure, led to the appointment:

To the Hon: D. H. Chamberlain, Attorney-Gen

ral:
DEAR SIR—We would ask your official recommendation to Governor R. K. Scott for the appointment of John C. Minott, Esq., as one of the trial justices for Charleston County. It is a matter of very great importance to the community in trial justices for Charleston County. It is made to role very great importance to the community in general, and to the members of the profession especially, that persons of character and legal information shall fill these important positions, and we think that the appointment of Mr. Mi off with entirely acceptable to all class sof the community. Mr. Minert has been educated for the profession of law both in this country and in Eur peand this, together with his experience as a magistrate for the past year, fully qualifies him for the proper discharge of the duties of this office.

Your favorable consideration will be appreciated by Very respectfully yours, &c.,

W. Soratt, Brewster, Spratt & Burke.

COLUMBIA, January 13; 1870.

To Messrs. Pressley, Lord & Inglesby, and others.
GENTLEMBN.—I am in receipt of your communication of the 6th instant, in which you solicit my official recommendation of John C. Minott, Esq. or the office of trial justice.

Replying, I have the honor to say that I have Replying, I have the honor to say that I have some acquaintance with Mr. Minott, and have learned to hold him in high esteem, both professionally and personally. The office of trul justice exists, however, only in future, and I am hardly prepared to actupen so extreme a contingency. The opinions of the Bar of Charleston, so numerously represented by your communication, will, however, at all times have commanding weight with me, and I have little doubt that my views will be in harmony with theirs when the time for action shall have arrived.

GENTLEMEN—I am very happy to inform you that his Excellency, deferring to the judgment of the Bar of Charleston, as communicated in yours of the 6th January last, and renewed in yours of the 15th ultimo, has conferred the appointment of trial justice for Charleston County on John C. Minout Esn. Minott, Esq.

Permit me to express the hope and belief that this appointment will prove satisfactory to all classes and all parties in your county.

WANTS JUSTICE .- Mr. William Lawless, donceiving himself to have been placed in on unenviable light by the publications in the city papers in regard to the recent "horse ca-e," asks,a suspension of public judgment until the matter can be brought before a higher tribunal.

THE BASE BALL TOURNAMENT .- The long expected contest betwen the Charleston and Savan nah base ball clubs came off on Tuesday, just beyoud the Park, in the latter city. After an exciting contest the victory remained with the Sa vannah boys, and the Schachte's were beaten by a score of 6 against 41. The day wound up with a riding tournament and a supper, at which every one seemed to have enjoyed himself hugely.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER .- The anniver sary of the birthday of the Father of his Country was doly honored yesterday, by the hoisting of the ensign of this great and glorious Republic on the various public buildings of the city. The consular offices also displayed the colors of their respective nationalties, and gave great assistance in sustaining the flagging interest of the people. On the Guardhou-e the noisting was for a time suspended, there being no halyards through the top of the staff. An enthusiastic individual, how ever, soon appeared on the roof, and clambering up the lofty pole with the line in his teeth, adjust ed it at the top. The flag was then tied on, and ere long floated triumphantly over this stronghold. The day was a proplifous one for the dis play of bunting.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC. - Hamlet was given at the Academy last evening to a fair house, and with tolerable success. Mr. Buchanan is hardly e qual, however, to the exacting requirements of the title-role, and his Hamlet, though bearing evident marks of care and study, is defective in artistic torce and symmetry. His own advice to the players might, in a midgated form, be applied to his somewhat overwrought treatment of Shakes peare's subtle ideal. The scenes with the Queen and at Ophelia's grave-perhaps the test scenes of the play-were hardly adequate to the occasions; and in several of the soliloquies Mr. Buckman's voice, which seems to be affected by a passing hoarseness, fmled to convey the full expression of the famous words. Where the greatest have but putly succeeded, hypercriticism would, however, be unjust, and Mr. Buchange may fairly claim for his impersonation a thoughtful and, in some respects, an original con ception. The impor ant part of the King was entrusted to Mr. Brent, whose murky and melodramatic rendering can hardly be accorded very high praise. Mr. Kendall's Polonious was unfor tunately unintelligible; but he turned up as the Grave Digger in the fifth act with considerable effect. Taken for all in all, the support was moderately good. To night Macbeth is announced, and on Saturday a matince for ladies and children will be given, on which occasion the favorite play of The Marble Heart" will be presented.

That DESIRABLE FARM, known as "Heyward's," about two and a half miles from the city limits, opposite Clement's Ferry Road, beautifully a tracted on the banks of the Ashey River, containing, as per plat made by Robt. K. Payne, 121-32-160 acres, dated April, 1837. Said farm is not only valuable for agricultural purposes but could be advantageously appropriated as a Race Course and place of public amusement, of which the City of Charleston is in need, and for which purpose this Farm was recently selected by parties well versed in such subjects, and a course of one mile staked out upon it. Its quick and easy access by water, the South Cavolina and Northestern Raliroads, the délightful drive to it afforded by the shell and plank roads, all point to it as peculiarly adapted to the above mentioned purposes. This Farm could be advantageously divided into farms of twenty acres each.

Conditions—One third cash; balance in one and two years, Secured by bond and mor gage of premises sold; interest 7 per cent. per annum, payable annually.
